THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1847.

[Augusta Correspondence.] State House Augusta,

Tuesnay, Feb 8, f842 I found on hearing the Journal read th a morning that the order introduced by Mr Ous of St George calling on the Superintendant of the Insane Hospital for certain information, was pass. ed instead of being laid on the table as stated in o numb of yesterday

The hour of meeting is at 9 o clock, a httle too early for the accommodation of some of the members, who like late breakfasts, as was testified by the appearance of the House this morn-pump," visited "Marden's Museum" or been ing, not more than forty or fifty members being engaged upon a "carcise" in their seats at the time of meeting. Perhaps, { however, the good people of the State should then hole story, not omitting the Col's exploit not complain if after prayers, enough are present to "ge ahead with the business as was the fact this morning

The papers from the benate, viz the petition of Ita Wadleigh, et als bill giving the People's Bank further time to close its concerns, and the resolve in relation to the distribution of US, and in Europe, and is just the thing to be vista of patriotic monuments, he accomed to "reschool fund, were severally referred and disposed of in concurrence

Resolves in favor of Charles B Hayden, indefinitely postponed by the Senate, came down for concurrence, the House insisted on its roje passing the resolve to be engrossed and appointed Messrs Dunn, Frye and Page conferees

Correspondence of the N. Y. American Washington, Thursday, Feb 3

The great Adams question is still pending bringing up, and thus far pertinaciously keeping up, a question which they now find will not lie down at their bidding. They will learn that it Mr Otis, supported his motion in a set speech is easier to raise this spirit than to lay it. The Northern Wing Press has sounded a true high tone once again, as it did last summer, when Mr Everett's nomination was pending in the Senate, and the effect is likely to be equally decisive Let every pecuniary consideration van quent appeal to the justice of the House for his ish, let the Treasury at ill ring hollow with jor him.
